GLEASON TO MAKE SEVERAL RAIDS— BIG POLICE SHAKE-UP COMING

Killing of Detective Birns Leads to City-Wide War on Vice—Meagher to Get Ryan's Place, Is Report—Gleason, Peeved at Morals Squad, Will Act.

Many things promise to result from the hair-trigger gunplay started by members of the morals squad in the South Side levee Thursday night.

Chief Gleason is still angry over the killing of Detective Sergeant Stanley Birns in a manner that has made the entire city disgusted with the affair.

As a first move Chief Gleason has decided to take from the morals squad the exclusive privilege of experimenting with vice in Chicago and has decided to start a campaign of his own.

Several squads will be formed and they will comb the city. It is even promised that for the first time the raids of the police will not be confined to the 22d street district, but will extend from the badlands of 63d street to "Little Paris," out around Wilson avenue.

Tonight several raids are contemplated in the 22d street district, the East Chicago avenue district, Wilson
